Rough Water Stops Outboard Events at Race

Inboards Supply Excitement at Yacht Club; Viking Sets 2:57 Record

While wind and rough water prevented running off the outboard events at speed boat races sponsored by the Chain O'Lakes Boat Club Sunday at the Yacht Club Bohemia, Fox Lake, four inboard events provided some excitement.

In the first two laps of over a mile each, a time of 3:04 was set in the 175 horsepower class, E. G. Gunderman, cut that seven seconds to mark up a 2:57 score and secure first place in the second two laps.

Second place went to the Hex, Eddie Zender, owner and driver.

Rum Runner led in the 125 horsepower class, Bob Fratalla, Chicago, is owner and was also the driver.

In the 121 horsepower event, honors went to the Annie M.

The Anna, owned by Chester Molinaro, Channel Lake, and driven by Fred Stahmer, took the 95 horsepower event.

Entry fees for the outboard races were refunded.

The next race has been set for July 15, at Ma Schultz's, Nippersink.

About 70 entries are expected in the Chicago Outboard association races to be held at the Mineola hotel on Fox Lake Sunday. Class A, B and C events will be run off. These will include races for runabouts, hydroplanes and a variety of other events.

Work on 45 Delayed By Hy. Fund Freezing

The hope that work on the new right-of-way for Highway 45 between Bristol, Wis., and the state line can be started in the late summer or early fall has been expressed, despite the fact that the Kenosha county highway committee learned in a trip to Madison recently that the wartime freezing of federal highway funds prevents its being undertaken immediately.

The strip, 4.7 miles long, is reported to be the only unpaved stretch on the highway between the Gulf of Mexico and northern Wisconsin.

The county officials stated that grading and graveling at the present time would permit the roadway to settle to a firmer foundation by the time the 22-foot concrete pavement was ultimately laid.

A. G. Hartnell, Peter Epping and Harry C. Copen, committeemen; Highway Commissioner Harper H. Herzog; County Board Chairman Peter Harris and A. E. Bounsell, president of the Wisconsin Contractors' association, were members of the group that traveled to Madison.

Wisconsin Fair is Cancelled; 4th Time In 95-Year History

The Wisconsin state fair has been cancelled for this year, in answer to a request from the Office of Defense Transportation.

There have been only three other times in the 95-year history of the fair when cancellation was found necessary. Two of those times were during the Civil War and the third was when the Columbian exposition was being held in Chicago.

The fair had been scheduled from Aug. 18 to 26, and much of the preliminary work had been completed.

Around the Resorts

A carnival will be sponsored by the Deep Lake Improvement association Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 20, 21 and 22, at Deep Lake. Dancing will be a feature in the evenings.

The Pasadena Gardens' grand opening on Tuesday was among the high lights of the July Fourth holiday with which the summer season swung into full sway in the lakes region. Music was furnished by Harold Voight's orchestra.

Service Flag Dedication

A new service flag containing sixty-two stars representing those of the membership and constituency of Antioch Methodist church who have entered the armed forces of their country will be dedicated at the morning service next Sunday, July 8, 1945. Three gold stars tell of those who have made the supreme sacrifice. The public is earnestly requested to join us in honoring these of our own.

Warren C. Henslee, Minister

Sol Di Mucci, Rooney farm, Rock Lake, suffered the loss of part of the third finger on his right hand when it became entangled in the pulley of a hay rope several days ago.

F. P. O. Names Sans "Requests" Off Lists

The names of about 90 men serving overseas in the navy, coast guard and marine corps were temporarily removed this week from the Antioch News Boys in Service mailing list, pending the anticipated arrival of delayed requests for the paper from many of the addressees.

This removal of Fleet post office addressees from whom no request had been received by July 1 was made in compliance with a recent postal ruling, which requires that these requests be kept on file for inspection by the local postmaster. It is expected that reinstatement of the names removed will be a gradual process, because of delays in mail involving men in remote stations or engaged in combat service or sea duty. All reinstatements will be promptly made, however, as quickly as the requests are received.

News of the Boys in Service

"My new address is... a little long, but that's the way it has to be. 'Thanks' again for the paper."

(Ed. Note: Dear Stephen—please elucidate. Are those hieroglyphics at the head of your letter compliments, insults or just the date and salutation? Or were they the result of "doodling" when you were down to your last sheet of paper? Assuage our curiosity, pray!)

Thousands Enjoy Safe July Fourth in Lake Region

Although thousands of persons flocked to Antioch for the July 4 holiday, the day passed without accidents or major mishaps of any kind in this area, according to the records of the Antioch Rescue squad, the fire department and the Lake county sheriff's office.

Commencing last weekend, however, and continuing through Wednesday, the village and the innumerable "subdivisions" around nearby lakes were thronged with summer visitors.

Local stores were "sold out" by Tuesday, in many instances, and other business establishments reported correspondingly heavy patronage.

Hints on Health and Beauty Given by Dr. M. H. Kirm

Diet is Important to Both Health and Appearance, Speaker Says

Samples of fruit, including pineapple and sweet cherries, canned without boiling and without the addition of sugar were tasted and pronounced delicious by the fair-sized audience that attended a lecture by Dr. H. Marian Kirm, Chicago nutritional specialist, Friday evening in Guild hall under the auspices of the Antioch Woman's Club.

A demonstration of sugar-less, boil-less canning was conducted before the audience in connection with Dr. Kirm's talk, which was entitled "Foods That Improve Health."

In her lecture, Dr. Kirm offered suggestions as to how diets can be arranged to improve both health and appearance.

Good health, she declared, is the basis for good appearance in most cases, and women who are seeking to improve their appearance should start with their diet and their general health.

She also emphasized the importance of correct, healthful diet in securing relief from many aches and pains, and stated that a normalized weight is in many cases health precaution.

A carefully chosen diet may also be an enjoyable one, she pointed out, and declared that "starvation" and "freak" reducing diets are neither desirable nor, in the end, truly beautifying.

Game and Fish Code Changes Being Made

Any person in uniform, serving in the military and naval forces of the United States, may fish with hook and line without being required to purchase a license, according to a revision made by the 64th general assembly in the Illinois game and fish codes.

The open season for taking of cock pheasants has been extended from Nov. 11 to Nov. 25, inclusive, J. D. Miller, chief clerk of the Illinois conservation department, states in a letter addressed to all county, city, village, township and incorporated town clerks.

Section 53 of the game code has been changed to read "The fee for a hunting license for a resident of the state of Illinois shall be $2.00." Miller continues.

Agriculture Teachers To Consider Post-War Curriculum Problems

C. L. Kutil, instructor in vocational agriculture at Antioch Township High school, left today for Urbana, Ill., to attend the first meeting of the advisory committee on agricultural education, July 8.

Twenty agriculture teachers have been summoned by the University of Illinois to consider new curriculum problems in post war education.

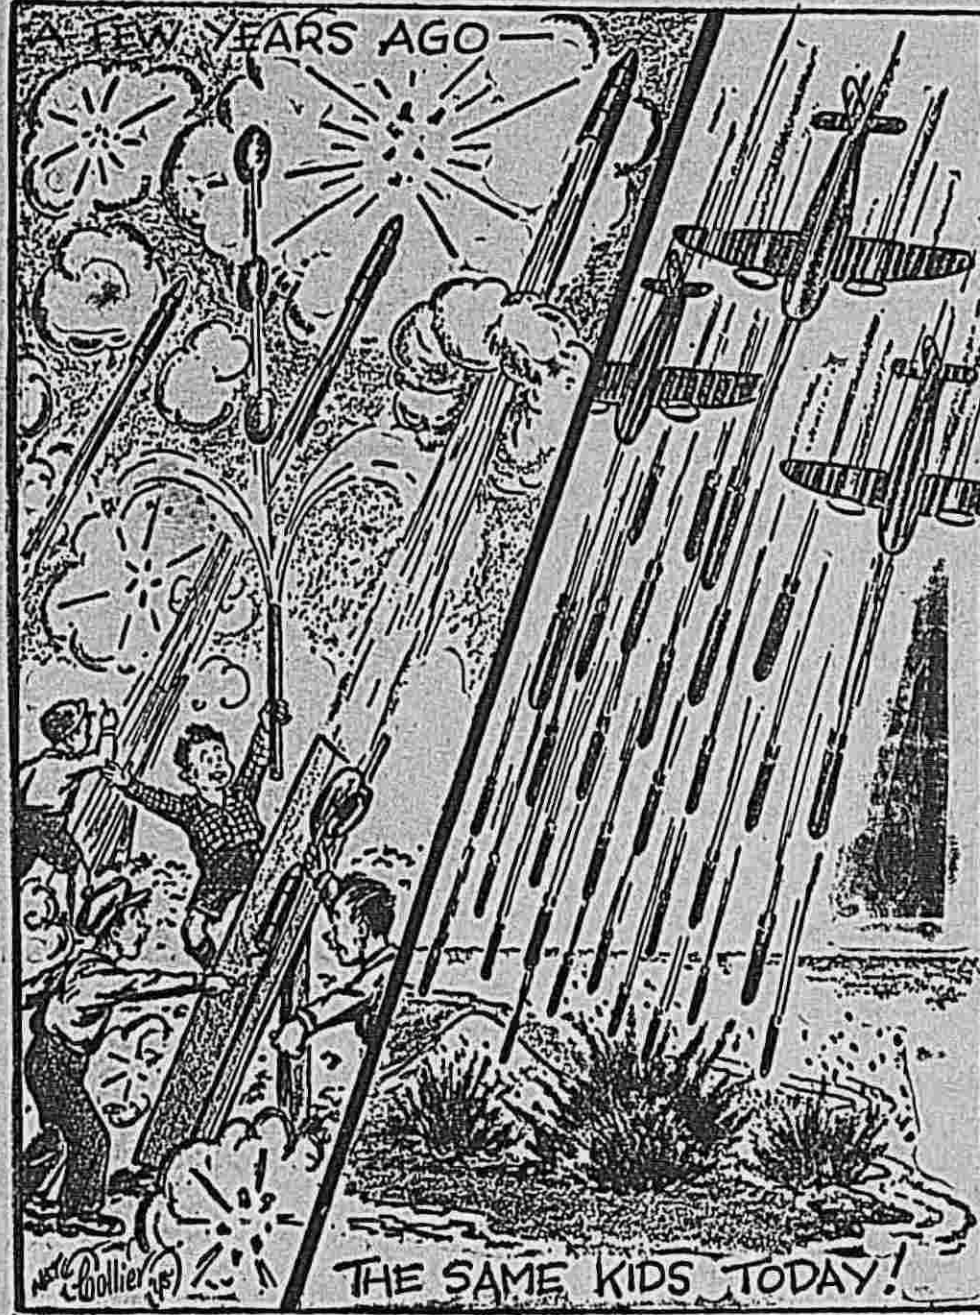

Kutil represents the northeastern section of the state on the committee.

Antioch, Lake Villa Exceed Bond Quotas

Antioch township oversubscribed its quota in the Seventh War Loan campaign, which closed Saturday, with an estimated percentage of 119. Lake Villa also went over the top, with 115 percent. Belated reports are expected to raise these percentages. Lake county's total percentage was estimated at 94.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pape celebrated their twenty-ninth wedding anniversary Thursday.

The Observer

When George Borovicka, the high-powered power behind the throne over to Reeves Walgreen agency drug store called up an engineering firm Tuesday to have an inspector or estimator or something sent out to do some inspecting or estimating or whatever it was, he was somewhat taken back by the question, "Have you an airport in your town?" He was further informed that if there was a local airport the work could be done that day. But if not, not. Seems the company owns two airplanes which it uses for taking care of such calls. Nope, we ain't found out yet how Geo. ariz to the sitch, so don't ask us.

Illinois has a firm hold on its position as one of the leading dairy states in the nation, according to Howard Leonard, state director of agriculture. Illinois farmers and dairymen now have 1,192,000 milk cows—the largest number on record.

Pointing to total milk production in the state during May as setting a new high record, Leonard predicts that the 1945 milk production goal, increased slightly from last year's high level, will be attained. Illinois ranks second in the making of American cheese, fourth in the manufacture of ice cream, and fifth in milk production. The gross income of Illinois farmers from dairy products was $156,298,000 last year.

The Grasshopper Song—the writer probably enjoyed the singing at the Lumbermen's Annual Frolic more than I should have, and I am particularly thankful to the bunch in the locker room for the stirring singing of "The Grasshopper Song."

It was quite evident that the fellow members of Thursday evening's "shindig" enjoyed it, too—they applauded enthusiastically. The musical merits of "The Grasshopper Song" are questionable, but I like it and it has long been a favorite of mine. Therefore, I remain loyal to its tune and sentiment, even though it has caused me some embarrassment.

My first knowledge that the number is not regarded as a classic came one evening at a little party. Featured was a charming pianist (and I do mean charming!) Most every guest seemed to call for favorites and she readily complied. The thought occurred that perhaps I should request a number, but the only selections I could think of right then were "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," and "Onward, Christian Soldiers." Neither of these seemed to fit the occasion.

Suddenly the hostess turned to me and said, "Isn't there something you'd like to hear, Effie?" I thought fast—too fast—and answered, "Well, yes, I'd like to hear 'The Grasshopper Song.'"

It was a request from the heart, but it soon became evident that I had picked the wrong number. The charming pianist glared at me, smiled sweetly and let her fingers ripple over the keyboard to the tune of something called "To a Wild Rose."

Now "Wild Rose" is a fine number to many. It probably conjures up a delightful picture along the back

Council Will Hold Two More July Meetings

Receipt of Bids, July 11; Sewer Plans July 26 on Calendar

A meeting of the Antioch village board Tuesday evening was recessed to Wednesday evening, July 11, for the purpose of receiving sealed bids for furnishing material required in the maintenance of Arterial Streets Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 in Antioch. The proposals will be received, opened and read at the recessed meeting.

A special meeting is to be called for July 26, it was voted, for the purpose of considering plans for improvements to be made at the village disposal plant and the drafting of an ordinance for a sewer tax or rental charge for use of the village sewers.

An audit of the village accounts for the fiscal year ending April 30, 1945, was presented by E. F. Laurin, public accountant, and accepted for placement in the village files.

In Good Condition

The audit showed the village's fiscal affairs to be in excellent condition. Current assets were listed at $36,824.30, with additional assets (figured at cost), including lands, the village hall and fire station, water system and equipment, as well as the new fire engine motor and new snow plow, at an additional $51,718.64. Liabilities and surplus were balanced off, respectively, at $3,426.10 and $85,116.84.

Receipts for the year included, among other items, $6,284.22 in general taxes; $2,200 in liquor licenses; $170, theater licenses; $168, dog licenses; $959.50, vehicle licenses; $5,934.51, water sale collections; $404.53, 2 percent fire insurance tax, $606, fire service fees; $800, fire equipment rental; contributions, $1,740. Receipts totaled $26,408.68.

Expenditures included salaries, power and light, purchases and maintenance of equipment, and dues, fees, bond and interest payments, and other purchases and services, with a total of $22,979.21.

Since Sept. 1, 1936, the village has invested $17,854 in U. S. savings bonds, with a maturity value of $24,000 and a present value of $19,095.70.

July 22 to 28 is Set as Farm Safety Week

Declaring that the farmers of Illinois, in the face of wartime shortages of labor and machinery, "are successfully maintaining our state's high rank and honored reputation as a producer of food," Governor Dwight H. Green proclaimed July 22 to July 28 as National Farm Safety week throughout Illinois.

Farm organizations and safety groups will observe the week as a concerted, country-wide effort to reduce the number of accidents among farm families. According to the National Safety Council, there were approximately 18,500 accidental deaths among American farm residents in 1941. Accidents caused by machinery accounted for 28 per cent of these fatalities, while those involving animals formed 20 per cent of the total.

T/5 HUBERTY IS CITED IN LETTER OF COMMENDATION

Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Huberty, Lake Villa, have received a copy of a letter of commendation citing their son, T/5 Robert J. Huberty, 19, for his share in helping to distribute water in the Manila area.

The letter, signed by the commanding officer of an engineer water supply company and addressed to the commanding officer of an engineer aviation battalion, is, in general, as follows:

"On 12 February 1945, the following named enlisted men reported to this organization on temporary duty, with trucks on which 1250 gallon navy cubes were mounted, to be used in distributing water to various points in the Manila area."

"I wish to personally thank and commend each of these men for their enthusiasm, fine spirit of cooperation and faithfulness to duty while serving with the —th engineer water supply company. Much of their work, especially during the month of February, required long hours and was performed under hazardous conditions due to enemy mortar and sniper fire. First echelon maintenance was performed on trucks at all times.

"The last of the above mentioned enlisted men were released on May 30, 1945 to return to your command."

T/5 Huberty has been overseas in the Pacific area for the past 18 months and in the service for two and one-half years.

Huberty attended Lane Technical High school in Chicago and was a student at Antioch Township High school during the year of 1938.

An older brother, Roy, is an army radio instructor in Chicago.

Watch Those Addresses!

This is the appeal—

Dear Editor:

We hope that you will not feel that we are burdening you with our problems in the face of your continued difficulties. We do think, however, that you are interested in helping us serve those who are dependent on the Navy mail service as a sole means of communication. Therefore, we hope that you will again assist us in our endeavor in making the Navy mail service more valuable to Navy, Marine and Coast Guard personnel overseas.

Every day there are more than 5,000 improperly addressed letters received at the Fleet post office, San Francisco, which means that there are 5,000 men overseas who don't get their mail. If those letters were properly addressed they would be delivered. We ask your assistance in seeing that those men get their letters and parcels.

The enclosed mat and press release are furnished that your friends and readers may be advised of the importance of correctly addressing Navy mail that their mail will continue on the long trip to the addressee and not be delayed or returned.

Your assistance in using all or any part of the information furnished will be appreciated by the Navy and by those who send mail overseas.

Very truly yours,

J. K. Galloway, Lieut. Comdr., USNR,
District Postal Officer, Ninth District.

And this is the story—

Washington, D. C., June 26—The Navy is vitally interested in seeing that mail is delivered to all the boys in the service. That which is properly and legibly addressed is quickly dispatched to its destination. Despite the hazards of war and weather, the Navy mail service has delivered letters to remote ships and stations with great efficiency. But—the mail must be addressed correctly.

Mail addressed to amphibious craft seems to give the most trouble. But if the sender addresses it properly, the Navy will get it through. In the first place, there are at least ten different types of craft—LSD (Landing Ship, Dock); LSV (Landing Ship, Vehicle); LCI (Landing Craft, Infantry); LSM (Landing Ship, Medium); LCT (Landing Craft, Tank); LCS (Landing Craft Support); and LCL (Landing Craft, Infantry—for more personnel).

Each type may have hundreds of different units numbering from 1 to 600. LCI No. 442 may be operating in the Pacific, whereas LCT No. 442 may be in the Mediterranean. The letters "T" and "I" are often interchanged or are written so similarly that they are unreadable. If the "I" was mistaken for a "T," the letters would go far out of the way and the delay would easily be several weeks.

Some are still under the impression that the Navy has one vessel called LST and they address their mail to the USS LST, Fleet Post Office, San Francisco. This is just like addressing mail to Main Street, U. S. A.

In addressing Navy and Coast Guard personnel aboard ships, print, don't write, his full name, rank or rate; print the name of his ship, i. e., LST (Landing Ship, Tank) No. 442 (four four two); write out both destination and number. The last part of the address is either Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, or New York City.

Undelivered letters due to incomplete, incorrect, or illegible addresses amount to more than 5,000 a day at the Fleet Post Office, San Francisco. While the letters are undelivered a lot of lonely men are waiting and wondering why their mail isn't coming through.

The Navy has done a remarkable job in getting mail to its personnel in all parts of the world. In nearly every case, undelivered mail can be eliminated if the simple rules given above are followed. Address your mail correctly.

And what are you going to do about it?

P. S. The general idea of the above applies to the other branches of the service, too.

Controls on Controls!

While price control may be necessary now, we should not forget that if you control prices you have to control what makes up prices.

That means you have to control just about everything in our whole economic system.

If we want to get back to basic Americanism, with men making their own decisions instead of having the government order their lives, we have to start ending the controls just as fast as that can be done without too much shock.

We need sensible policies while price control continues—policies which will encourage industrial production by allowing business an incentive profit.

And certainly we need to get rid of these controls as quickly as the conditions which led to their adoption have changed.

Jr., and Freddie, and their house guest, Binky Oetting, were in Milwaukee Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dooper and children, Kenosha, and Ila Sue Richards of Bristol spent Sunday afternoon at the George Nelson home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Beck, daughters, Ingar and Betty May, and Mr. and Mrs. P. Ronsholt, Racine, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dahl.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Williamson and son, Robert, Kenosha, were Sunday visitors at the Harry Dexter home.

Mrs. Nellie Runyard and son, Wilson, entertained at dinner Sunday at Shanty Town in honor of her sons, Gerald and Stanley, who are home on furloughs. Those present were the former's sister, Mrs. C. Todd, Calvary, Canada; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Runyard, Mrs. Russell Longman and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mickle, Trevor; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Runyard, Waukegan.

Mrs. Floyd Lubeno and son, Jimmie, and mother, Mrs. Birdella Schwery, spent Friday in Waukegan. Mr. and Mrs. Theron Hollister, son, Vernon, and daughter, Mrs. Ray Hawley, motored to Fort Sheridan Sunday to visit the latter's husband, Sgt. Ray Hawley, who has been discharged from the army and will return home in a few days. Hawley has been in service overseas for over a year.

Erick Gustafson spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Johnson, at Grayslake.

ANTIOCH COMBAT ENGINEER AIDS IN ADVANCE ON SHURI

With the 96th Infantry division on Okinawa—

After elements of the 96th division had been held up one week by Jap defenses on Charlie Hill in southern Okinawa, S/Sgt. John Virgil Horton, Antioch, Ill., and several other combat engineers provided the means for neutralizing this obstacle.

Efforts to install tanks atop adjacent King Hill had failed because of the impossible terrain, but Horton and his buddies of the 321st Engineers brought up bulldozers and under a steady hail of enemy fire pushed a tank train to the summit.

From this position the tanks were able to shell the enemy positions on Charlie Hill, thus permitting a continuation of the 96th division's advance on vital Shuri.

COAST GUARD RAISES ENLISTMENT STANDARDS

Higher standards for 17-year-old male enlistees in the United States Coast Guard were revealed today, along with an announcement that the quota for Coast Guard enlistments of apprentice seamen has been increased. In making this announcement Coast Guard officials pointed out that the Coast Guard is the only branch of the armed forces that does not induct draftees. Consequently, men of 17 who enlist in the Coast Guard compete only with others in the same age group for entrance to service schools.

Requirements for enlistment in the Coast Guard are now higher than those of the other armed forces. Applicants must have at least three years of high school and be in excellent physical condition. Upon completion of boot training at the Coast Guard Training Station, Manhattan Beach, New York City, Coast Guardsmen either enter a service school or are assigned immediately to duty.

Applicants for enlistment in the Coast Guard may secure complete information from Ensign L. T. Connor, Officer in Charge of the United States Coast Guard Recruiting Station, 508 New Federal Building, St. Louis, Mo.

Nick Hilbert, New York APO 9, has received a second promotion, this time to staff sergeant, according to information received Friday by his wife, Mrs. Helen Hilbert. Hilbert is now acting as mess sergeant for his outfit, which has been transferred from the First army to the Third army.

After nearly three years of service in Africa and Italy, Cpl. Rudy Sterbenz arrived home last Thursday. A brother, Pvt. Paul Sterbenz, who served with the marine corps in the Pacific area, has been home on a 60-day leave. A third brother, Sgt. G. E. Sterbenz, is serving with the army in the Pacific region. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sterbenz, Loon Lake.

A CHARGE OF 25c per week after 30 days will be made on any garment left uncalled for for over 30 days.

A severe wind and rain storm swept over this vicinity Wednesday evening leaving great damage in its wake. The wind gained the momentum of a twister and swept in on Wilmot from the east, striking first at the home of Mrs. Fred Mattern, where several huge trees were blown over in her farm yard. Next it hit the Holy Name Catholic church, blowing in two stained glass windows and damaging the interior of the building badly. ## MARITIME SERVICE CALLS FOR OFFICER CANDIDATES

Prospective licensed officers' training in the U. S. Maritime service is now open to men with specialized engineering training without any previous sea experience, Commdr. R. T. Sexton, regional enrolling officer in Chicago, announces.

Candidates will be assigned to the U. S. Maritime service training station at Hoffman island, N. Y., as chief petty officers.

Further information may be secured from the U. S. Maritime Enrolling office, Room 515, 844 Rush street, Chicago, or Room 208-312, East Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee, Wis.

Sgt. L. R. Larsen finds that France looks the same going west as going east.

"Have been receiving the home news regularly and it is good to know where all the fellows are. Well, I am right back where I started from, on the Omaha beach. This is where D-Day took place.

"I went across France, Holland, Belgium and Germany. The Engineers outfit which I have been with for the past four years put the bridge across the Roer river and the Rhine river, and we wound things up by the Elbe river.

"Have two battle stars so far. I hope to be in the States soon for a discharge, as I just made the point system with 88 points. France is the same as it was a year ago. No improvements at all.

"We had a big parade with the French on the Normandy beach. A large monument has been erected near the American cemetery here with the names of each outfit that landed here on D-Day."

T/5 Cecil L. Anderson's letter does wonders for the morale of the News staff, too.

"A big batch of the News copies came in and I read them from cover to cover as usual.

"I like the News of the Boys as much as any part. I am in the Philippines and am on a pretty fair island—much better than the northern Solomons.

"Pretty gals here at the dances—some fresh vegetables and very little rain.

"I would like to thank you and the American Legion for the papers. They are great little morale builders.

"I think all Antioch Vets should subscribe to the News after they get out and help build a bigger and better paper. I know I'm going to do that."

(Ed. Note—Ah! Our post-war plan! A 100 percent enrollment of veterans on the subscriber list—AND a bigger and better paper. See what we mean about morale?)

Leonard LeNard of Round Lake, who served as a technical sergeant with the Air Transport command for the past three years and recently received a discharge on medical grounds, and members of his family were Antioch visitors last Monday. LeNard is a member of the Antioch American Legion post.

AWARDED COMBAT MEDICAL BADGE

Pvt. L. A. Hanke received the Combat Medical badge June 12 at O'Reilly hospital, Mo. The badge is given only to medics who have been under enemy fire and who see front line action, it is explained, and is in the same order of merit as the Combat Infantry badge. Hanke was promoted to private first class the first of June.

Mrs. John Lozowski has received word of the promotion of her husband, who is serving with the army in the Pacific area, to corporal. Mrs. Lozowski before her marriage was Miss Jessie Ducommun.

Vernon Ducommun, 17, Lake Villa, has received notification that he has passed his physical examination for entrance in the navy, and is now awaiting his call to service.

T/Sgt. Harry Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Nelson, arrived home last week on a 34-day leave. He will report to Camp Grant for reassignment July 21.

T/5 Charles Barthel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barthel, Salem, has been home on a 33-day furlough from overseas duty. He reported at Fort Sheridan June 30 for reassignment.

T/Sgt. John J. Collins is home on a 30-day leave after serving in Italy with the Fifteenth Army Air force for the past six months. He has been in the army for nearly four years.

Sgt. Collins is spending his leave with his wife, Eliza, their five-year-old daughter Micky, and his mother, Mrs. Agnes Collins, Lake Villa.

He is one of four brothers, all of whom are in the service.

The other three are Pfc. Donald, who has been stationed in England and who was united in marriage there on May 19 with an English girl, Vicky Vickers; Pfc. Gordon, serving with the army in the Philippines, and Pvt. William, Camp Robinson, Little Rock, Ark. There are no sisters.

CHESTER PAASCH RECEIVES COMBAT, PURPLE HEART AWARDS IN GERMANY

"I am writing on behalf of my husband, Pvt. Chester A. Paasch, who is in Germany serving with the Third army," says a note from Mrs. Paasch. "He has won the Infantry Combat badge, and has also received the Purple Heart medal.

"He says that he receives the Antioch News sometimes, and sure is glad to get it, but he had been moving so fast that it took a long time for it to catch up with him."

Pvt. Ralph H. Lasco, Fort Bragg, N. C., writes:

"I have moved to a new place recently, so I thought I'd better write and give you my new address. I have been getting the News right along, but the last couple have been delayed because they have to be forwarded to me from the hospital. I enjoy each issue very much and look forward to Mondays with anticipation as that is the day they usually arrive.

"I have been back on duty about three weeks now. I sure was glad to leave the hospital. It is okay when you are sick, but when you are active it is awfully dull. It does seem funny, though, to be working and exercising again. Hospital life sure softens you up in a hurry, that I found out.

"I went back to B-9-3 when I was released from the hospital, but I only stayed there about five days. I transferred to D-5-2, where I am now training. I've been there two weeks and like it well enough, but not as good as B-9-3.

"My cycle had finished while I was in the hospital, so I was put in another one. I had to start back in the 12th week, which I didn't like. I've finished 12th and 13th again, and start the 14th tomorrow. Saturday I'll be caught up to where I was when I went to the hospital. After that we go out in the field for two weeks of hard work and plenty of open air.

"Training here is somewhat different from at B-9. I am now training on the 105 mm howitzer.

"The weather here has warmed up pretty good. It is a lot like other sandy hot places. Warm as the dickens in the day time and very cool during the wee hours of the morning. It rains a couple of times a week also. In fact, I got a little soaked coming from the show last night. From what I've heard, the weather home hasn't been any extra special, either.

"I suppose old Antioch is plenty full of summer folks on the week-ends. Well, I haven't much more time before chow, so I'll have to close. Thanks a lot for the News, and keep it coming."

CPL. STANLEY MORTON
ARRIVES IN STATES

Cpl. Stanley Morton arrived home recently for a brief furlough.

He enlisted in the army Oct. 14, 1938, and served in Panama, Puerto Rico, Costa Rica, Guatemala and the Philippines. He was gun commander on an American transport in Guatemala on Pearl Harbor Day. The ship's sailing was delayed for two days, but it afterward joined a convoy that headed for the Philippine war zone and unloaded its cargo while the Japs were advancing on the Americans' last stand area there.

He was home on furlough last September, afterward leaving for England, with the 125 1st Engineer Combat battalion. He served in France, Belgium and Germany, and his outfit built the bridge above Wesel on which American troops crossed the Rhine. He holds the Purple Heart medal and has 138 points to his credit.

He is now being sent by the army to a technical sergeants' course in army engineering.

His wife and their two daughters, Betty, 3, and Dolores, 18 months, live at Channel Lake. A brother, Ray, received an honorable discharge from the army last February.

Observer...

Village officials have again requested the co-operation of Antioch residents in making sure that Victory gardens and other garden properties are not damaged by canine pets.

Put squarely "in the middle" by irate victory gardeners who see their labor, sweat, tears, seeds and cherished plants threatened and indignant pet owners who feel that their own particular Fido is getting the blame for another's misdeeds, Village Marshal Fred Peterson pleads for understanding on both sides.

"That's a job I gotta have some co-operation on," he sighs, "I'll need some help from the public."

Looks like the whole village'll have to turn to and give the marshal a hand, for there are admittedly more dogs around—and more gardens—than one man can watch.

But it's a golden opportunity for Junior Commandos to do a good deed.

Signs of the times—when an Arm-our and Co. Truck loaded with meat tipped over the other Saturday on Route 59A two miles south of Route 120, the first thing Driver Chester Lovelace of St. Paul, Minn., did was to telephone Lake County Sheriff Walter L. Atkinson's office and ask for a guard. He got it, too. Deputies stood watch while the cargo was transferred to another truck and sent on its way.

Got any spare thimbles—size 11 or 12—around the house? "Hezzie," the washboard star of the Hoosier Hot Shots, is in desperate straits these days now that he's down to his last set of metal thimbles, and he hasn't been able to buy replacements. All the vigorous thumping which Hezzie does on his famous washboard is hard on the thimbles he wears on his fast moving fingers, and "Hezzie" is hoping that some of the National Barn Dance fans will help him out of his "thimble thituation."

CALL FOR COOKS
Chicago (Special) Six thousand cooks, bakers, butchers and chefs are needed immediately by the War Shipping Administration. They are needed, the WSA Chicago offices said, for temporary duty with the merchant marine and are to be assigned to duty on Liberty and Victory ships converted to troop transports to bring soldiers home from the European theatre of war.

Cooks, bakers, butchers and chefs may volunteer for one or more trips. "Those volunteering will be preparing excellent food to help battle weary GI's forget about K rations. Further than that, they will be helping our fighting men get back home for much deserved furloughs and discharges." Curtis Byrne, Regional WSA Director of Recruitment and Manning, said.

Experienced cooks, chefs, bakers and butchers are urged to wire or telephone collect War Shipping Administration headquarters at 844 Rush Street, Chicago. Telephone Delaware 5527 or if in or near Chicago, apply in person.

Transportation to seaboard location and daily standby wages will be paid until ship assignment is completed.

"I have been in six countries since coming over here last year—England, Scotland, Holland, Belgium, France and Germany.

Library News

The books presented by the American Legion auxiliary to three of Antioch's gold star mothers are now on the shelves at the Library. "Jack London, Magnet for Adventure" was given as a memorial book for Lt. Arthur Scott. It is a vivid story of the colorful career of the famous author and war correspondent. "The Murmur of Wings," presented in memory of S/Sgt. Willard J. Mann, is a whimsical, tender story of a man whose love for birds became the most vital thing in his life. "A Moment of Time," the book dedicated to Corp. Allen Hanke, is the engrossing story of Submit Elery, who lived in the New England of revolutionary days.

"The Townsman" by John Sedges was a Literary Guild selection. Jonathan Goodliffe, the principal character, was brought from the England he loved to the plains of Kansas and a raw but building civilization. His story is characteristically American and told with warmth, color, and bold skill.

In "The Wine of San Lorenzo," Herbert Gorman describes the Mexico we fought and from whom we wrested Texas, New Mexico, and California. It is a lusty tale, opening with the battle of the Alamo and crowded with unforgettable pictures and people.

A new who-dun-it for mystery fans, "The Crimson Feather" by Sara Elizabeth Mason, is high in suspense and intrigue.

trade some heat for some rain. Well, last week I think she sent the rain, as it has rained every day since a week ago last Monday. One good thing about the rain is that it put out the Everglades fire which has been burning for over a month. You folks know how peat burns. Well, that is what was burning here.

"My wife (the former Margaret Pierstorff) is down here with me now, as is our little girl, Mary Jean. We have a place right on the ocean beach and it is nice, and cool there, but it sure is hot in camp."

Pfc. Harvey G. Miller has been home on furlough from Bakersfield, Calif., where he has been stationed at Minter field.

MILLBURN

FAULKNER-HAUSER NUPTIALS
On Saturday evening, June 30th, at 8 o'clock at a candlelight service Miss Doris Faulkner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Faulkner of Gages Lake, exchanged nuptial vows with Sgt. Clarence Hauser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hauser of Millburn. The Millburn Congregational Church, which was decorated with baskets of snapdragons, was the scene of the double ring ceremony performed by Rev. L. H. Messersmith.

Preceding the ceremony, Frank De Young sang "Because" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Martin who also played the traditional wedding march.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with long sleeves, full skirt and train. Her finger tip veil was caught to a Juliet cap of lace and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

Mrs. Clifford Weber, sister of the groom served Miss Faulkner as matron of honor and wore a gown of blue taffeta and net with a blue halo. She carried peach gladioli. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Howard Bonner and Mrs. Victor Miller of Grayslake wore gowns of pink taffeta and net with matching halos and carried bouquets of white carnations and blue delphinium.

Elmer Hauser served his brother as best man and Milton Bauman and Robert Denman were ushers.

Mrs. Faulkner chose a gray print with dark accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Hauser wore a blue print dress with dark accessories. Both had matching corsages of gardenias.

One hundred and fifty attended reception in the church dining room immediately following the ceremony. Sgt. and Mrs. Hauser left for a week's honeymoon in northern Wisconsin.

Mrs. Hauser is a graduate of Warren Township High school and Lake College of Commerce and is employed in the office of the Johns-Manville Corporation. Sgt. Hauser has just returned to the States after two years in England. He will report to Fort Sheridan on July 15th for reassignment.

Miss Josie Messersmith of Farnam, Neb., who spent two weeks with her brother at the parsonage, left Wednesday for Ann Arbor, Mich., where she will attend school for eight weeks at the University of Michigan.

Daily Vacation Bible school closed Friday morning with a program for the mothers and friends. There was an enrollment of 42 and an average attendance of 36 for the two weeks.

The July committee of Ladies' Aid will serve a cafeteria supper at the church Thursday evening, July 5, starting at 5 o'clock. Mrs. L. H. Messersmith is chairman, assisted by Mrs. E. A. Martin, Mrs. Howard Bonner, Mrs. Frank DeYoung, Lois Bonner, Alice Denman, Thelma Clark, Grace King and Carol Ruth Upton.

Ben Ames of Decatur, Ill., is spending a week with his sister, Mrs. O. L. Hollenbeck.

Eric Anderson is a medical patient at St. Therese hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hucker of Grayslake were callers at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Annie Hoffman, Sunday.

Ensign and Mrs. Lyle Tennis and Mrs. Hollis Hollenbeck of Kenosha, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Grant of Edison Park spent Friday at the O. L. Hollenbeck home.

Mrs. Kenneth Crowley of Libertyville was an overnight guest at the Frank Edwards home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McGuire and sons were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Schmelz in Des Plaines Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Atwell and son Lloyd of Lake Villa, and Mrs. C. E. Denman and Mrs. Minnetta Bonner of Grayslake were supper guests at the Ralph McGuire home Friday evening.

LAKE VILLA

Rev. Pierson of Garrett Biblical Institute was minister at the Community Church last Sunday and the people of Lake Villa have a real treat in store for them next Sunday when Maj. Ira B. Allen, who has seen 27 months of service overseas as Chaplain, and who was a former pastor here, will be present to conduct the morning services at the Community Church. During his work in Europe and his visit to the Holy Land, he took many pictures and he will show them on the screen at an evening service. Maj. Allen and his wife, who will accompany him, have many friends here who will want to meet them, so the church committee has arranged for a pot luck dinner at noon, to which all are invited. The public is also invited to see the pictures in the evening.

The Sunday school picnic date has been set for Friday, July 20.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold its next meeting on Tuesday, July 10 at Buena Park with Mrs. Sweeney and the April, May and June birthdays will be celebrated at a pot luck dinner at noon, with the business meeting at 2 o'clock in charge of the pres. Marie Hamlin. The ladies have set Thursday, July 26 as the date for the annual summer sale at the school gym and a white Elephant sale will be held in connection with the summer entertainment last year and was successful, so if you have something in your home which you have tired of, someone else may be glad to get it. Dessert luncheon at one o'clock, card party during the afternoon and entertainment for the evening. The date is Thursday, July 26.

Capt. William Walker, who has been in action in Europe for nearly 2 years, is enjoying a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Walker. He and his sisters, Misses Margaret and June Walker spent Monday in Chicago.

Pfc. John K. Cribb, who has been overseas for nearly 2 years, came home Saturday on a 30-day furlough at his home here. He has been at New Caledonia and the Pacific war zone for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McGlashan were guests of friends in Elmhurst last Friday.

The storm last Wednesday evening did considerable damage in our vicinity. Many trees were uprooted, broken or struck by lightning, telephone and light service disrupted and a number of the small buildings on the William Walker farm east of the village were blown down.

Mrs. Charles Kelly visited relatives in Antioch last Sunday.

Miss Sue Weber was in Chicago from Friday to Sunday to attend the Grand Assembly of Rainbow Girls and in which Antioch chapter of which she is a member took part.

Peacock Camp, home for crippled children has opened for the summer season and a group of boys are enjoying the beautiful home and grounds.

Miss Ann Petru of Chicago visited her cousin, Mrs. Marie Hamlin from Friday until Sunday of last week.

Those who are saving waste paper for W. S. C. S. may bring bundles to the Charles Hamlin garage for storage as long as need for waste paper continues.

Cedar Lake 4-H club met Monday afternoon, July 2 at the home of Jeanne Burt and the meeting was opened with members giving the 4-H pledge, and members responded at roll call with points in care of the feet. Plans were made for 4-H achievement program which will be held at the Cedar Lake school on the evening of July 18. Florence Bolton gave a talk on "Proper Foot Care" and Fern Mattson gave a demonstration on pressing of garments and each girl sewed on her jumper. The meeting adjourned and the hostess served refreshments.

The Observer

New awnings have been put up on the Pedersen bakery and the Antioch Packing House downtown store.

The following military info., for what it is worth, is passed on from Fort Worth Air field, Tex., via the Associated Press—

Tex.—The Tarranter, field newspaper, sent a reporter burrowing through "bulky piles of army regulations, circulars and assorted directives" to see what he could find. Among other things, he found:

1. Finance officers are prohibited from betting, "even on a sure thing in the sixth," under penalty of suspension and investigation "with a view to trial."

2. An obsolete regulation permitted soldiers to draw partial pay any time a carnival came to town.

3. If a soldier enters the army on the last day of the month, and it's the 31st, he draws no pay for that month, but if the last day of the month is the 30th he gets paid.

4. Because enlisted men's pay continues after capture, a flying staff sergeant captured when Corregidor fell, drawing rations and quarters, would have about $5,228 coming now.

5. FWAAF has a first lieutenant, formerly a chief warrant officer, who prefers—and gets—a warrant officer's pay of $175 a month, instead of a lieutenant's $166.07. There's a regulation that says no man shall suffer a pay reduction by reason of being commissioned.

oOo

Y'gotta admire the restraint with which a certain fiery-tempered gentleman (and don't try and find out from us who it was—we don't know, either) wrote the letter:

"Sir, my stenographer, being a lady, cannot type what I think of you. I, being a gentleman, cannot think it. You, being neither, will understand what I mean."

—H'm. That could really lead to somethin'.

A person sees—and hears—a lot of interesting things riding along on the buses to Antioch—schoolgirls (41 of 'em), lively as a flock of blackbirds, and even more chirpy, travelling from Holy Child High school in Waukegan to enjoy a day's outing at Cedar lake; a sign "—miles to Tokyo,—miles to Berlin; only 200 feet to Nielsen's"; and, of course, the really breath-taking beauty of the lakes region in June—those old-fashioned yellow roses in farmyards always seem to carry as poignant an appeal to the memory as lilacs; the wild pink ones by the roadsides, ranging in shade from almost white to nearly red; and the lush green of trees, shrubbery and grass, with glimpses of lakes here and there along the way—it's enough to make a person start thinking of that old phrase, "God's country."

$36,000,000 WORTH OF HAY?

Ordinarily, $36,000,000 isn't hay in any man's language.

But this time, it represents the "hay" a lot of smart Americans set about to rake in while the sun was shining. Before the war. Back in 1935.

Yes, in March, 1935, these shrewd investors bought up $27,000,000 worth of U. S. Government "Baby Bonds". . . the same bonds that grew up into War Bonds the day the Japs took a poke at Pearl Harbor.

And today, they're collecting $36,000,000 . . . which is $4 for every $3 they laid on the line 10 years ago!

We mention this just to show you that when your government urges you to "give $3 and get $4" we mean exactly that!

All of which makes it mighty worth while for you to hang onto the War Bond you already have until they mature. And to grab as many more War Bonds as you can possibly afford to buy!

You'll be doing your fighting men a favor, to be sure. But the biggest favor is the one you'll be doing yourself in the peacetime days yet to come!

Observer

fense, the fragrance of new mown hay, and maybe the chirping of a cricket, etc.—but I maintain it is a poor substitute for "The Grasshopper Song"; besides, "Rose" isn't wild any more—she's one of the first numbers I taped on the accordion.
Anyhow, Ed—he's a top tenor—and the locker room bunch sang it to perfection at the Lumbermen's frolic last Thursday evening, and I found gratifying support for my contention that there is something to that old ditty after all.

To the Coffee Club

Although it's fine to sit and sip And laugh till you're in stitches, For pleasure rare, what can compare With scratching where it itches?

Our postmaster discovered a cache of used chewing gum at the coffee counter Saturday morning, and the amount being considerable, proves he undoubtedly was occupying a popular stool. Which brings to mind how close I came to winning $25,000 a few years back. A fellow by the name of Wills received that amount for writing something sensible concerning prohibition. It had occurred to me several times that the way to stop drinking was to cut off the supply of liquor. But it never occurred to me that the idea was worth $25,000. Just wait 'til they put up a prize concerning chewing gum—about parking it under the tables and on sidewalks, and in other handy places to get on one's shoes and wearing apparel—I'll guarantee that I'll get a "cut in" on that prize.

"Tell me, Mr. Fuller, where is Daisy Mae?"

"She's out milking the cows."

"Well, Mr. Fuller, where is she milking the cows?"

"Now look here, young feller, didn't you ever see a cow?"

To the fire chief—Tother day I stood on Main street and watched the boys hustle out to a fire. Right then, I discovered a new ambition. I want to be a back seat driver on a hook and ladder truck, but I don't suppose I'll ever make it. But chief, I'm placing my application this minute, and if this township ever contemplates a hook and ladder addition, remember, I'm first. "Missouri" and Clarence, et al, can scramble for the driver's seat; I'll engineer the rear, back there where it will take a 3-penny stamp to get word to me.

Say it with flowers, say it with sweets,

Say it with kisses and say it with eats;

Say it with jewelry, say it with drink,

But never—no never, say it with ink!

"If pleasure interferes with business"—so quotes the Boss.

Well, the cat is out of the bag, the chip knocked off, the gauntlet thrown, and my hat's in the ring. (To Ye Editor—I heard those caustic remarks last week. You'll be sorry.) It seems I am to be projected on a journalistic career, once more, that was begun more or less half-heartedly 40 years back. I have been invited to be a contributor to this column, and have accepted. Incidentally, I have been warned that I will be minutely examined, censored, restricted and what-have-you (my reputation has preceded me). Should you note, dear reader, parts and even lines missing, or filled in with the usual "???" 's, you will realize that the Boss arose from the wrong side—she doesn't believe in the freedom of the press, etcetera.

If my memory served me correctly (it does), my first journalistic endeavor demanded giving up the company of too many of the feminine acquaintances. Within the week I dropped the whole business (correction—was dropped at the request of the editor (my uncle) and eventually the young ladies (father's request).

The will to resist being stronger, however, after 40 years' experience, I trust femininity will not again so wantonly upset my noble ambitions. But should the flesh prove weak—this I can and will guarantee—the same ladies will not do the upsetting.

My First Observation

"When Noah sailed the mighty sea He had his troubles same as me, For 40 days he drove the Ark Looking for a place to park."

Anent those yellow lines on the Main street pavement—It seems the 80 percent have the idea—apparently the 20 will have to have it explained—Those bright new stripes are to park between—not a-straddle.

Will someone see if they can't get that Red-headed Musicker to repeat, "It ain't gonna rain no more"?—We know now that he was lying, but it sounded good, anyway.

Keeps Cake Moist

Frosting on a cake is more than a "treat." It helps to keep the cake moist as well. For professional looking cake, apply frosting as follows: 1. Allow cake to cool, and brush off loose crumbs. Spread frosting evenly and fairly thin over sides with spatula or knife. 2. Pile remainder on top, spreading lightly toward edges, leaving most of the frosting in the center. 3. Run spatula over sides again to fill in any spaces and to set frosting in place. 4. Let frosting "set" well before putting cake away or attempting to cut it.
